

Please keep our no call List as is, because it is nice to be able to eat supper without answering a call that I did not want to receive in the first place.